

Consent for Release of Information on Academic Record and Progress

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives students certain rights with respect to their education records.

This form is for the use of students who wish to voluntarily consent to the release of educational, non-directory information provided during a meeting.

I, _____, consent to the release of information (student's name)

on my academic record and progress to _____ (name of person to who you are giving permission) for the purpose of this meeting that includes knowledge of my performance. I am not required by law/University policy to give this consent. This consent is voluntary.

Student signature _____ Date _____

Student ID Number _____